www.no18chambers.com

Our Private Law Children & Matrimonial Finance Conference 2017 is aimed at all who are currently practicing in all aspects of Private Law Children & Matrimonial Finance, and those who are otherwise interested. We are planning on an informative and relaxed seminar at £35 per person (incl of VAT) for 5 hours' CPD. We will be holding this seminar on 29th November 2017 at Double Tree by Hilton, Bracken Place, Chilworth SO16 3NG.

Ian Wheaton (2002)

Ian came to the bar in his thirties, following a law degree at Southampton Solent University. He then studied at Inns of Court School of law in London. Between completing his legal education and coming to the Bar Ian Lecturered in law for undergraduates and postgraduate students in Southampton and London, and Legal Foundations for the Open University. He also represented clients as a lay representative from prior to being called to the Bar and has been appearing in the tribunals in one form or another since 1996.

Finance and Divorce

Ian's experience in Family property and Finance, Divorce and Nullity is wide ranging and encompasses small, medium and big money cases. He has particular expertise in cases involving:

- Contested Nullity and divorce proceedings
- Declarations as to marital status
- Maintenance pending suit, Financial provision and Property Adjustment Orders including pension sharing and attachment orders
- Variation applications
- Restraining future disposals and dealing with property
- Avoiding Disposition Orders
- Financial Relief after overseas proceedings
- Cases with complicating factors such as an international dimension, businesses, companies and cases with significant debts or insolvency issues

Child Law

Ian has extensive experience in all aspects of private children law representing parents and children including:

- All forms of Section 8 Children Act 1989 applications,(including matters involving allegations of physical or sexual abuse; cultural, religious or racial issues,)
- Cases involving a foreign element (including applications for leave to remove children from the Jurisdiction)
- Cases where psychiatric or other medical evidence relating either to parents or children is required.
- Special Guardianship applications

Ian will be discussing the current case law and judicial thinking and the strategic importance of developing a persuasive advocacy style and the art of achieving your strategic objectives by persuading someone else they might have thought of it.

The focus will be on (but not limited too):
