Family Law (Public & Private Law Children) Advocacy Training Seminar

10th June 2016 - 5hrs CPD

For Advice • For Representation • For Resolution

www.no18chambers.com

Our Family Law Advocacy Training Seminar is aimed at all who are currently practicing in all aspects of Family Law, whether Public Law Care or Private Law Children and those who are otherwise interested. We are planning on an informative and relaxed seminar at £25 per person (incl of VAT) for 5 hours' CPD. We will be holding this seminar on the 10th June 2016 at HILTON Southampton.

Ian Wheaton (2002)

Ian came to the bar in his thirties, following a law degree at Southampton Solent University. He then studied at Inns of Court School of law in London. Between completing his legal education and coming to the Bar Ian Lectured in law for undergraduates and postgraduate students in Southampton and London, and Legal Foundations for the Open University. He also represented clients as a lay representative from prior to being called to the Bar and has been appearing in the tribunals in one form or another since 1996.

Nigel Cholerton (2007) (admitted as a Solicitor 2004)

Nigel is an established and experienced practitioner who over the years has gained extensive experience in a number of fields. Nigel first qualified as a solicitor (2004). He gained Higher rights of Audience in all proceedings in 2005 before coming to the Bar in 2007. He is a member of both our family and civil law teams and is an experienced trial advocate who is regularly instructed to attend complex, sensitive multi-day hearings in both public and private law family law matters. Nigel also provides written advice in matters of Trusts, and disputes relating to land. Nigel is an approachable and passionate practitioner who always works hard to achieve the client's objectives by providing robust and direct advice whilst also taking into account the circumstances of the client. Nigel knows only too well the importance of working with his instructing professional to ensure that these needs are firmly met.
